Evan,

I have gone back and forth on this and whether or not I should even say anything, but I have decided it is the right thing to do. I am so worried about Lynn Peterson. Lynn is such a good person, and she cares so much about her instruction. I know she has some improvements to make, but she is coachable and is a team player. Anyways, I am worried about her because she confided in me that she is taking care of her sister – paying her bills, paying her debts, giving her a place to stay, and helping her get back on her feet. Bless Lynn’s heart. She has a lot going on. I even think she is trying to get her sister into a rehab facility for addiction issues. I don’t know what she would do if she didn’t have this job at the school. I hate to think of what would happen to her. Just thought you might like to know so you can check on her and give her some encouragement.

Thanks,
Alicia
